CHURCH LOOTED

Father Lops' Followers Completely Strip the Youngstown Church of Furnishings.

Youngstown, O., May 20.—There was a complete looting of St. Anthony's church Sunday morning by the members of the congregation, who are standing by the acting pastor Father Lops.

A mob of some 3,000 people swept down on the church at a signal given by the ringing of the bell at 3 o'clock. The thing had been carefully planned and was executed with expedition. When over there was not a thing left in the church. Carpets were torn up, seats taken away, the altar furnishings removed, chandeliers, candlesticks, everything movable disappeared.

The congregation had prepared for the moving, having a house next to the lot where they will erect their new church ready to receive the effects.

When the raid was started a detail of police was hurried to the scene, but arrived too late.

MRS. SUSAN STRAWSER DIES NEAR HEPBURN

She was One of Marion County's Oldest Citizens.

Funeral Services will be Held at Agosta M. E. Church,
Tuesday Afternoon.

Mrs. Susan Strawser, aged seventy-five years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ira Ferguson, two miles east of Hepburn at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. Her demise was due to old age and complication of diseases. She had been an invalid for the past three years.

The deceased was born in a log cabin, just north of Agosta, Marion County. Her parents were said to have been the first white settlers of that district and Mrs. Strawser bore the distinction of having been the fourth white child born in Marion county. A small farm lying north of Agosta the property of the deceased, was cleared by her parents, and the old log cabin, in which she was born, still stands.

The daughter, at whose home death occurred, is the only surviving member of the family, the husband, Andrew Strawser having preceded the deceased in death, ten years. Mrs. Strawser lived for seventy-four years in or near Agosta, and only took up her residence with her daughter a year ago, because of fast falling health. Her desire and wish was that she might live and die on the grounds which her parents had cleared from the forests.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Agosta Methodist church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. J. C. Sinclair officiating. Interment will be made in Agosta cemetery.

JOINED HANDS THROUGH BARS OF PRISON CELL

Amite City, Iowa, May 20.—Mamie Jordan, a pretty thirteen-year-old girl, was married in jail at sundown Sunday, to her lover, who ran off with her and landed in the Parish Prison her on a charge of abduction. The girl's mother, distracted at the sight of her child from her home in Hammond, had the pair arrested and the young man, Edward Wolfer, who claims Tennessee as his home, was locked up to await the action of the grand jury. Finally, a marriage was arranged, and, as the jailer would not release Wolfer, or even let him leave his cell, the couple joined hands through the bars and the preacher pronounced the service. Wolfer will probably be released in a few days.

OLD HOMESTEAD WILL BE PRESERVED

Judge Norris' Residence will not be Razed.

Building will be Moved to the Lot Adjoining it on the East.

The old Reed homestead, which stands at the southeast corner of State and Church streets and is now the residence of Judge Caleb H. Norris, will be preserved. The place where the dwelling now stands is to be the site for the new federal building, and it was generally supposed that it would be necessary to tear it down when the time came for putting up the new post office structure.

Judge Norris has decided that his home can be kept intact and that the massive structure can be moved without doing any damage. He has arranged to have it taken to the east end of the lot on which it now stands. The postoffice building will then be constructed immediately west of the Norris home. The home of Judge Norris is built entirely of stone and is one of the finest in the city.

The judge has forwarded his deed for the federal building site to the officials of the treasury department at Washington. It is expected that the deed will be duly signed within a few weeks and that everything will then be in readiness for awarding the contract for the new postoffice building.

SIX JAPANESE GIRLS STOWED AWAY IN BOXES

Port Townsend, Wash., May 20.—Because of the breaking out of smallpox aboard the steamship Oanfa on her last trip from the Orient, upon her reaching Victoria the entire steerage was fumigated. A short while after the sulphur was lighted and the hatches battened down the officers heard a commotion in one of the freight compartments. It was opened and investigation located the disturbances in six heavy boxes, which were found each to contain a Japanese girl.

Inquiry showed that the shipment was consigned to K. Sesookien, a stevedore passenger, who is alleged to be Taki Kalloro, a procurer, who was deported from San Francisco two years ago. Through exchange of courtesies between British and American authorities the six women and Sesookien were brought here last night and will be sent back to Japan on the Oanfa, which is scheduled to sail today.

HE MUST BE GOOD

Heir to Estate Must Convince Executors That He is not Like His Father.

New York, May 20.—To get a fortune willed to him by one of his aunts, fourteen-year-old Rene de Fontenillat, the nephew of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, will have to live the next 13 years of his life in such a manner as to convince the executors of his aunt's will that there is in his blood no hereditary "taint" of his father's characteristics which ruined his mother's life and caused her to divorce the Baron de Fontenillat six years ago.

Young Fontenillat must lose everything she left for him if he ever speaks to his father, and his aunt's will, in effect appoints her executors a board of supervisors that will decide when he reaches the age of 27 if he is a safe person to trust the heritage with or if he is a profligate with all the other bad traits of his father. At present he is a student at St. Paul's School near the Belmont mansion at Hempstead.

Miss Armide Vogel Smith, who died in this city on April 18, is the aunt who has made the boy one of her heirs.

Miss Smith was one of the four famous beauties of Mobile, Ala., who had such remarkable careers one of them becoming Baroness de Fontenillat, one becoming Mrs. W. H. Vanderbilt and later Mrs. O. H. T. Belmont, the third becoming Mrs. Fernando Ynago and later Mrs. William George Tift and the fourth Miss Smith herself, a noted charity worker. Respectively, they were known as Palla, Alva, Mimi and Armide and they were noted throughout the South for their beauty.

Court Happenings

The damage suit of Maria H. Plank against the Marion Railway Light & Power company, which had been pending in the local court of common pleas since July 30, 1904, was settled, this morning and dismissed by Judge Young.

Mrs. Plank claimed $2,000 damages for injuries which she claimed to have sustained April 27, 1904, in falling off an East Center street car. She claims that the car started too soon, throwing her to the pavement.

Mrs. William C. Dickerson, the woman who was arrested at Zanesville with her husband a week ago, left the county jail, this morning, but Dickerson remained in his cell. The grand jury recently indicted the husband, but failed to return a bill against his wife, despite the fact that both had pleaded guilty to the charge of horse stealing.

Although Mrs. Dickerson wanted to remain in jail with her husband, and stated that if he goes to the pen, she wants to accompany him, she steeled herself to the separation, and left, after having bade Dickerson good bye. She went to Centerville to get some of her clothing at the home of a relative. She informed Mrs. E. E. Brown, the jail matron, that she will return to Marion and secure employment in order to be near her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Evans have, for a second time, failed to make domestic life a success. Mrs. Evans this morning filed her second suit for divorce in the court of common pleas. More than a year ago she brought her first suit, and last October, after she and her husband had become reconciled, the case was dismissed.

The second petition was filed through attorneys DeGolley & DeGolley. It charges Evans with wilful absence for more than three years, and with drunkenness.

In the damage suit of Gottlieb Kohberger against the C. C. C. & St. L. Railway company, a motion to strike certain clauses from the petition, was filed, today, by the defendant company, through its attorneys, Mouser & Quigley.

A MARION BRIDE

Claimed by Guy A. Wilmet a Young Man of Kenton

Miss Verna Rea Rice and Mr. Guy A. Wilmet were married at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rice, on St. Mary's street. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. L. C. Reed, pastor of the United Brethren church, and was witnessed by a few friends and relatives. The young people will reside in Kenton, where the groom is employed as a structural iron worker.

HEARD THE MESSAGE; SHOT HIS MOTHER-IN-LAW

Petersburg, Ind., May 20.—Albert Traylor, a wealthy farmer, living five miles east of here, fatally shot Mrs. Martha Traylor, his stepmother, at noon Sunday. His wife had applied for divorce and the trial had occupied the last two days of the Circuit Court. He overheard his stepmother telling his wife over the telephone to hide out as her husband was looking for her to kill her. He shot the woman twice with a shotgun in the back of the head. He surrendered to Martin Case, came here and is now in jail. He refuses to talk about the matter.

TAKE L. H. FLOCKEN'S ADVICE

For More Than Two Years They Have Been Trying to Tell You How to Cure Indigestion.

We know of no surer way to prove that we have a remedy that will relieve stomach trouble and indigestion than by offering it to you at our own expense in case it fails. Through our own personal recommendation many Marion residents have been induced to try this remarkable dyspepsia remedy, and they have found relief almost without exception. One little tablet taken after meals invariably relieves distress after eating, sour stomach, fermentation, heart burn, and other symptoms of indigestion. Pepsikola Tablets are a positive cure for chronic dyspepsia and if you have palpitation, sick headache, nervous spells, gnawing pain at the pit of the stomach, backache, or if you feel worn out, run down, tired or despondent, nothing in this world is so sure to renew your energy, steady your nerves, improve your digestion and increase your bodily vigor as a ten days' trial of these tablets. Pepsikola is also a grand nerve tonic and L. H. Flocken will cheerfully return your 25 cents in case you are not greatly benefited.
